

SOLDIER'S BODY TO BE RETURNED FOR RE-BURIAL

The body of Cpl. William G. Weaver, late of New Oxford, and former commanding officer of the county's National Guard unit, who was killed in action September 12, 1950, in Korea, is to be returned here for reinterment, the Department of Defense announced today.

Three hundred and forty-nine Americans who were killed in the fighting in Korea are being returned aboard the Valdosta Victory the Defense Department said. The ship is expected to arrive at the San Francisco Port of Embarkation Sunday.

Served In Two Wars

Cpl. Weaver, 33-year-old son of Mrs. Mary C. Pety Weaver and the late James R. Weaver, resided in New Oxford before enlisting in the army for a second time April 17, 1950. He had served for five years during World War II, being separated from the service as a first lieutenant. He then joined the National Guard unit and was later promoted to Captain and named as motor maintenance officer for the 104th National Guard squadron with headquarters in Harrisburg.

Relinquishing his rank to rejoin the army, he was sent to Tokyo in May, 1950, and on August 30, 1950, wrote his mother that he was being sent to Korea as a replacement for the 25th Division. The Associated Press report of the war on that date shows that the 25th on September 12 took part in a "bitter fight against numerically stronger Red Koreans" to recapture a ridge four miles south of the confluence of the Nam and Nakdong rivers. It is presumed that Cpl. Weaver was killed in that fight. He was a salesman for the John C. Lower company before rejoining the army.

Burial At New Oxford

Members of the family said today that no arrangements have been made for the interment service but that burial will be in the Catholic cemetery at New Oxford, according to present plans.

Surviving Cpl. Weaver in addition to his mother are the following brothers and sisters, Bernice, Marie and George Weaver at home; Frederick A. Hanover; Mrs. George DeVine, New Oxford; Mrs. George Etoek, Hershey; and Miss Agnes Weaver, Baltimore.

CALL SPOTTERS FOR NEW TEST OVER WEEK-END

The Ground Observer Corps of the Civilian Defense setup today received orders from the Gettysburg observation post for a continuous period beginning Saturday at 9 a.m. and continuing to 6 p.m. Sunday evening.

This is the first time, since a "spotter" post was operated during World War II, that the local post has been called up for 24-hour, round-the-clock service, James S. Shenk, Gettysburg supervisor, said. A previous test was held during daylight hours only.

The post needs more men to act as observers during the hours from 11 p.m. Saturday to 7 a.m. Sunday morning, Mr. Shenk said, and requested that volunteers give their names to Miss Martha Stallsmith not later than Friday.

Local Headquarters

Headquarters of the observation post is located in offices of P. W. Stallsmith, York street, near Lincoln Square. Miss Stallsmith is chief observer, and Mrs. Jane DeWolf assistant chief observer.

"Spotters" will take over the post in two-hour shifts. During daytime and evening hours the post will be manned principally by women volunteers. Mr. Shenk said more women are also needed.

The observation test will be conducted generally throughout the Atlantic seaboard region, Mr. Shenk added. Planes will fly over the area intermittently during the test period. All planes observed by local spotters will be reported by telephone to the central filter station at Harrisburg. The post must be manned at all times, regardless of weather conditions, Mr. Shenk stressed.

Want Time Reduced

"It is just as important, or perhaps more so, to report during bad weather as during good weather," he said. "If planes cannot be seen, they can be heard, and must be reported."

During the last test, the average time from the spotting of a plane until it was plotted on the control board at Harrisburg was 2.10 minutes, Mr. Shenk said. The actual reporting averaged 40 seconds. The previous test was on April 14 and 15. An improvement is sought this time.

The order for manning the observation post came from Maj. Henry W. Spiller, USAF, assistant air adjutant general, from headquarters at Newburgh, N. Y.

But, one officer observed, "we know the Chinese are there and probably watching us go by. They want to develop a false sense of security."

2 Bad Shells Kill 8 Marines

Camp Lejeune, N. C., June 21 (AP)—Two defective mortar shells fell short and burst into a company of advancing Second Division Marines here yesterday afternoon, killing eight and injuring 23.

The gunners leaped to field telephones and notified a forward observation post. But before the warning could be relayed, the shells exploded among the forward group of the weapons company.

Members of the company told a reporter they did not blame the mortar section, but felt that defects in ammunition could have been noted by careful inspection.

Insulation in homes, how gas, oil and coal are brought to the homes, and even fires.

Practical Methods

"We felt that in such a unit of work, the teacher could have firemen come in and tell about fires and how to prevent them; gas and oil company managers and coal dealers could explain how the fuel is brought in and how it is used and what heat it gives and under what conditions. Even the plumber could be brought in to tell of his work in connection with installing heating plants. Thus not only would the student learn about heat—merely as a scientific fact—he would also learn mathematics, from studies concerning how much it costs to heat a home, how much insulation costs and whether its cost would be covered by savings in fuel."

Seek Information Center For Colleges

Harrisburg, June 21 (AP) — Colleges would have an information center in the Department of Public Instruction under a measure which won House approval yesterday.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. Raymond D. Sollenberger (R-Blair) was sent to the Senate by a 199 to 5 vote.

The bill would create a bureau of higher education with a deputy superintendent of public instruction in charge.

Sollenberger said the bureau was needed because "since World War II colleges have been faced with tremendous problems and have by indirect methods found mutual solution of these situations."

"What this bill does," he added, "is to provide a central point where colleges can turn in seeking information on problems which arise in the operation of their institution. It is very similar to the Bureau of Secondary Education," he declared.

Last One Of Quads Is Dead On Birth

Bayonne, N. J., June 21 (AP) — Quadruplets were born Wednesday to a Lyndhurst, N. J., house wife, but one was born dead.

Three girls and a boy were delivered to Mrs. Selma Kronenberg at Bayonne hospital. The last, a girl, was stillborn.

Hospital authorities said the three others and the mother were "doing fine."

The father, Irving, operates a variety store here. The couple has one other child.

Smoke Control Bill Is Before Senate

Harrisburg, June 21 (AP) — A bill setting up a state smoke control commission to reduce soot and gases in Pennsylvania's industrial areas was before the Senate Wednesday. The measure, introduced last night by Sen. Joseph J. Yosco (D-Northampton), Bernard J. McGinnis (D-Allegheny) and Samuel G. Neff (D-Lawrence) would place smoke control mainly on a county level.

At the top would be a three-man state commission including the health secretary, secretary of labor and industry and a third member appointed by the governor.

On the local level, however, counties deciding they wanted smoke control would create three-man smoke control boards composed of their county commissioners.

AWARD MEDAL OF HONOR TO 11 DEAD, MISSING

Washington, June 21 (AP)—Eleven army men who fought with "conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity" in Korea but who are now dead or missing, receive today the medal of honor.

Relatives—the widows, wives, parents or children—of the men were invited to come to the Pentagon to receive in their behalf the highest military decoration conferred by the United States. For presentation of the medals to them, the government chose Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

With the awards today, the list of army medal of honor winners in the Korean war has grown to 23—of whom only three are alive and not missing. All those awarded today were to men either dead or missing.

The army awards have gone to both soldiers and officers of four branches of the service—18 to infantrymen, two to engineers, two to members of armored outfits and one to a hero of the army medical service.

The 11 and the relatives receiving the medals include:

1st Lt. Samuel S. Coursen, 5th Regiment of the 1st Cavalry Division; his young son, Samuel, Jr., of Kahdena road, Morristown, N. J.

Sgt. George D. Libby of the 3rd Engineer Combat Battalion, 24th Division; his sister, Mrs. Gladys Hillert of 114 Walter street, Linden, N. J.

Prisoners Hold Guard As Hostage

Point-Of-The-Mountain, Utah, June 21 (AP)—Three prisoners held a Utah State prison guard hostage at the point of a knife last night and then hid out in the new multi-million dollar structure for two hours.

The guard eluded his captors unharmed and the three prisoners were hunted down and returned to their cells.

The Utah prison was the site of a four-hour riot several weeks ago, during which more than 200 prisoners took virtual control of most of the building.

Before the Senate committee investigating gambling in the Reading-Berks county area.

The firms are the Brighton Realty company, Minkler Brothers, Inc., I. M. Enterprises, and the White House Market. The committee previously called 22 persons, including many city officials, to be questioned. Most submitted financial records and were excused from personal appearances.

Late yesterday City Controller Jack Halliday, Michael Stolz, an officer of the Reading Moose lodge, and Thomas H. McDevitt, candidate for City Council, appeared before the investigators. They had not been officially subpoenaed but appeared "by invitation."

MORE COMMIES ARE SCHEDULED TO BE ARRESTED

New York, June 21 (AP)—The government's second big crackdown on American Communist leaders widened today following the roundup of 17 members of the party's second team.

More junior commissars are due for prosecution, authorities indicated.

Out of 21 Red leaders indicted here yesterday, four still were sought today.

A hundred FBI agents in 25 autos seized 16 here early yesterday, and a 17th was arrested in Pittsburgh.

The roundup came 16 days after the U. S. Supreme court affirmed the institution.

There was no riot last night. Most of the prisoners were held in the yard where they had been watching a ball game until the three men had been found.

A total of $191,000 bail, ranging from $1,000 to $20,000—was set late yesterday for the 16 arrested here. The Pittsburgh prisoner, Arnold Samuel Johnson, 46, was held in $15,000 bail for removal to New York, his home.

Johnson was described as temporary chairman of District Number Five, western Pennsylvania, during the absence of Steve Nelson, regular chairman of the Communist district. Nelson recently was hurt in an auto accident.

Fifteen of those arrested here, including four women, remained in jail overnight.

The 21 are charged with criminal conspiracy to teach and advocate overthrow of the government by force and violence.

Implicated With Others

The indictment was the first mass prosecution of Communists since the June 4 Supreme court ruling upholding constitutionality of the Smith act, under which the 11 top Red leaders were convicted in 1949.

The 21 were indicted for allegedly taking part in the same conspiracy for which the 11 were convicted.

U. S. Attorney Irving H. Saypol indicated here yesterday there would be further prosecutions. The special Federal Grand jury which indicted the 21 is continuing its work.

Judge Samuel Kaufman set June 29 as the date for the defendants to plead to the indictment.

WORLD WAR II
HERO RECEIVES
CAPTAIN'S BARS

Word has been received that Thomas F. Maitland, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Maitland, West King street, Littlestown, has been commissioned as a captain in the Officers Reserve Corps in a ceremony held at the regimental command post in Trieste, Italy. Captain Maitland has been in Trieste for the past three years, with his wife, the former Jean Mehring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Mehring, Hanover, and their two children, Beverly and Tommie. He has been a service man for many years, having served nine years in the Marine Corps, before his present career in the army.

Captain Maitland served an enlistment in the Marine Corps, and a month after Pearl Harbor he re-enlisted, receiving his former sergeant's rating, in which branch he continued to serve throughout World War II. At Guadalcanal he received the Silver Star and was advanced to second lieutenant for bravery. While there a correspondent said of Lt. Maitland that "he was one of the outstanding tacticians in the guerrilla operation. After brief civilian life he joined the armed forces again with a sergeant's rating."

Patriotic Family

Other members of the Maitland family have served their country. During World War II, Thomas and his brother, Calvin, were in the Marine Corps; George A. was in the army; Roy in the navy; Russell in the Seabees; John in the merchant marine; and a sister, Doris Maitland Wood, was an army nurse. At the present time those serving in addition to Captain Maitland in the army are: Calvin in the air force in Washington, D. C., and John with the marine corps, serving in Korea.

Tuesday evening dinner guests at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Davis S. Kammerer, West King street, included their sons and daughters-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. John W. Kammerer and children, Mary Catherine and Margaret Elaine, Boiling Springs; Mr. and Mrs. David S. Kammerer, Jr., and daughters, Julie Ann and Deborah, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gouker, and daughter, Mary Gail.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Miller and children, Wayne and Marilyn, South Queen street, spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Miller's brother-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hopkins and family, Bristol. They also attended the wedding of Mrs. Miller's and Mrs. Hopkin's brother, Urias Walterdorf, and Miss Mary Burke at St. Catherine's church, Torresdale, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Leo and daughters, Nancy and Cheryl, of Lemoyne, were Wednesday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Altoff and children and Mrs. Altoff's mother, Mrs. Thomas O. Weaver, East Myrtle street. Mr. Leo and Mr. Altoff served together in the army during World War II.

Mrs. James Straley, her daughter, Mrs. Milton Morehead, and daughter, Peggy, near town, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peeser, Hanover, were recent visitors at the home of the former's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Straley, and infant daughter, Ann Elizabeth, Shippensburg.

Miss Joan Marie Trite, New York city, visited during the week-end at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Harner, Littlestown R. I.

James Reichard, Littlestown R. D., is among several young people of the county who plan to take the leadership training course to be offered Monday through Friday of next week at Penn State college.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Randall, Lumber street, visited on Sunday at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Randall, Hallam.

Housework Easy Without Nagging Backache

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. ## REDS LOSE OUT IN OFFICE BUT GAIN STRENGTH

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington, June 21 (AP) — The Communists lost some power—that is, they lost some offices or seats—in the French and Italian elections just held. And there's been some cheering here about that.

But the sober fact is that the Communists still have a huge following in both countries.

Since 1948 this country pumped, in Marshall Plan aid, $2,400,000,000 into France and $1,311,000,000 into Italy—the greater part in both places was a gift—to help them recover economically and so stop the growth of communism.

Laws Were Changed
American experts say the plan has helped both countries tremendously, economically. But still, after three years of this help, more than 10,000,000 Frenchmen and Italians vote for or with the Communists.

In the French elections last Sunday the Communist party, proving itself the biggest single party in the country, got around 5,000,000 votes out of a total of roughly 18,500,000 votes cast in France. (The rest of the 18,500,000 votes were spread among five other parties.)

That Communist vote was only

475,000 less than the party got in the last big French elections of 1946—they got 5,475,000 then—when France was just coming out of the war and was an economic wreck.

The French elections Sunday were national: They were for representatives in the French Assembly, similar to this country's Congress. In Italy the elections were not national in that sense but were for offices in the provinces (similar to our states) and the towns and cities.

In both France and Italy the Communists lost seats, in spite of their big vote. But in both countries the election laws had been changed to let other parties, which outnumbered the Communists when combined, team up against the Communists.

In France, for instance, the Communists, who won 180 Assembly seats in the 1946 elections, got only about 89 Sunday.

But—and this is a significant but—no one here has ventured to say how many seats the Communists would have won this time if the other parties hadn't changed the rules in an effort to squeeze them out.

Impressive Returns

The Italian elections were spread over several weeks and still have covered only about two-thirds of the country. The remaining one-third will be covered in elections in the fall.

In Italy the Communist vote so far has been truly impressive. In the national elections there in 1948 the total vote for all parties was 26,800,000, of which the Communists and Left-wing Socialists, who joined with them, got 8,137,000, or 30 per cent of the total.

The total vote in the recent Italian elections—covering two-thirds of the country—was 17,000,000, of which the Communists and Left-wing Socialists got 6,000,000, or about 35 per cent of the vote.

In short, even though the Communists lost offices, their total following increased. Percentage-wise, they got more votes this year than they did in 1948, when Marshall Plan help was just starting.

Napoleon was morbidly afraid of cats.

| Cost Per Year Per Gallon | 37½ Cents       | 19½ Cents |

The price of ordinary asphalt or tar roof coatings is about 75 cents per gallon, a little more or less. If you're getting 2 years service to the gallon — and that's average — you're spending $3.75 per gallon for every 10 years of service (Not counting labor).

CARBOZITE IS GUARANTEED FOR 10 YEARS—IN WRITING!

CARBOZITE the mineral rubber coating costs $1.95 per gallon and CARBOZITE is guaranteed for 10 years of service. So with CARBOZITE the gallon is only 39 cents for the same length of service as ordinary asphalt roof coatings. That's a saving of $9.00 for every 5 gallons every 10 years.

With CARBOZITE your labor is only once in 10 years — with cheaper coatings your labor is 5 times in 10 years.

With CARBOZITE you save four applications which far exceeds the cost of your material.

Thus, in 10 years CARBOZITE coatings will more than repay its entire cost in coatings alone. And that's only the beginning, because you had no further outlay for labor for 10 years.

All this explains why America's Largest Industries say: "CARBOZITE coatings don't cost... they Save!"

DEAR OLD DAD NORMAL AGAIN, "HIS" DAY OVER

By HAL BOYLE
New York, (AP)—Dear Old Dad woke up in millions of homes on Monday to his usual morning anthem—the alarm clock.

He turned it off sleepily and rolled over for a few last fast winks. Then he looked over at the other twin bed and saw the matronly rebuke forming in the eyes of his wife.

"Get up," said Dear Old Mom pitilessly, "and start earning us a living."

Dear Old Dad started to answer back, but decided silence was the better part of valor. He arose, yawned, pawed his way feebly into his robe and stomped to the bathroom. The door was closed. He banged on it impatiently.

"Go away," said the small voice of his son. "I'm washing."

"I got to get to work, Junior," said Dear Old Dad. "What're you doing up so early anyway?"

"Got to finish my home work."

"Why didn't you do it yesterday?"

"Cause we all took you out to dinner for Father's Day. There wasn't time."

Too Late Again

Dear Old Dad stomped back and sat on his bed and waited. He heard the bathroom door open, but by the time he got to it the door had closed again. He banged on it.

"Well, after all, puh-h-h-lease!" said the small icy voice of his daughter.

"Excuse me, Sis," mumbled Dear Old Dad. "What're you doing up so early?"

"Oh, is that you Daddy dear?" she trilled. "I have to do my home work before I go to school."

"Well, I'm late for work," he said. "Hand me out my shaving gear."

Dear Old Dad then stomped out to the kitchen and washed and shaved himself by Braille, cutting himself only twice. While he was scraping away the burnt surface on his breakfast toast, Sister said:

"Daddy dear, can I have an extra dollar, pretty please?"

"What for?" he demanded crossly.

"What'd you do with your allowance?"

Man Bites Dog

"I had to spend it for an extra important special occasion," she said. And he understood at once what she meant—her present to him of the day before.

"I need a buck, too," broke in Junior. "Same reason."

Dear Old Dad emptied his pockets and divided the contents.

As Dear Old Dad plodded off to work, pondering the joys of parenthood, a young puppy owned by his neighbors crept up behind him and nipped him in one calf.

Dear Old Dad reached down and grabbed the young dog. Quickly he looked both ways. There was no one in sight.
Then, with a look of utter and complete pleasure, Dear Old Dad put one of the puppy's rear legs between his teeth and bit down sharply. He let the dog go, and it ran away, yelping in surprise.
"Just 364 more days until Father's Day," said Dear Old Dad cheerfully. He walked on whistling, a man at peace with the world.

ASK DEATH IN SLAYING CASE

Tunkhannock, Pa., June 21 (AP)—The prosecution charges that 53-year-old Charles E. Homeyer killed his fifth wife in order to get her money.
Homeyer is on trial charged with the slaying of Mrs. Anna Snellman Homeyer, in March of last year. Mrs.

Homeyer, born in Germany and a one time circus performer, was some 13 years his senior.
Had Sixth Wife
District Attorney Robert C. Trem-bath declared to the court that by means of forgeries Homeyer had reduced his wife's bank account from $4,600 to $1,000 at the time of her death, and that he was trying to raise more money from the sale of their house in Factoryville, Pa.

"Before Anna's death," Trembath said, "Homeyer had selected his next wife through a lonely hearts club."
When Homeyer was arrested in California earlier this year he was living with his sixth wife.

The prosecutor accused Homeyer of having got together "special tools to do the job" of killing his wife, among those tools "a meat saw and a variety of knives."

He said the defendant used these tools to cut up his wife's body, then buried them with the parts in the cellar of the Factoryville home.
The state is asking the death penalty.

GEN. WEIKERT IS ROTARY SPEAKER AT LITTLESTOWN

The annual summer carnival sponsored by the Littlestown Fish and Game Association, Inc. will open this evening. Entertainment will be provided by Mike and his Twilight Entertainers, a instrumental and comedian group of radio fame. The carnival will be held on the Littlestown playground on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Those comprising the general committee are Dr. Richard M. Phreaner, president of the association, Charles W. Snyder and George DeHoff.

The semi-monthly meeting of the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce was held out-of-doors at the home of J. Robert Sell, South Green street, on Monday evening. A special hour was enjoyed, which included several group games. Refreshments were served.

General John Weikert, Washington, D. C., spoke briefly at the regular meeting of the Littlestown Rotary club Tuesday evening, at Schottie's hotel, discussing the Korean war and the world situation.

Visitors present at the meeting in addition to the speaker were Fred Tilberg, of the Gettysburg club, and James D. Novenger, of the Colonial Park club. Charles E. Ritter, president elect, who was delegate from the local club to the Rotary International convention in Atlantic City, reported on the convention. Ernest W. Dunbar, who also attended from the local club, told of some of the convention highlights. Next year the convention will be held in Mexico City, N. M. The International Service committee composed of Luther D. Snyder, chairman, Arthur E. Blair, Frank J. Krocak, Edward H. Leister, Richard A. Little, Sr., Edward T. Richardson, Sr., and P. Emory Weaver, was in charge of the program.

To Install Officers
The newly elected officers will be installed next Tuesday evening at 6:15 o'clock, at Schottie's hotel. Those comprising the Program committee, Frank E. Basehor, chairman, L. Robert Snyder, Paul R. Dr. and Mrs. Howard A. Stoner and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Dunbar attended the 40th anniversary celebration of the organization of the Harrisburg Rotary club, Monday evening.

The members of the Hustlers' Sunday school class of Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed church decided to hold the annual summer picnic for the members and their families on Monday evening, July 16, at the June meeting of the class held Monday evening in the social hall of the church. The place will be announced later. The following committee was appointed: Mrs. Richard Hartlaub, chairman, Mrs. Curvin Hollinger and Mrs. Bernard Weaver.

No Summer Meetings
Twenty-six members and six visitors were present at the meeting, which was in charge of the president, Mrs. Hazel Hess. A song service was held with Miss Louise Dutera serving as piano accompanist. The scripture was read by Mrs. George I. Bemiller, followed with prayer offered by Mrs. Lloyd E. Crouse. The program consisted of vocal duets, "Now In Days of Youth," "It Is No Secret," "True Hearted, Whole Hearted," and "May The Good Lord Bless and Keep You," sung by Elizabeth Anne Crouse and Joan Koonz, accompanied by Miss Dutera. The reading, "A Letter," was given by Miss Lillian Demmitt. Miss Elizabeth Howells, home economist of the Metropolitan Edison company, gave a demonstration on the preparation of summer salads.

During the business session reports were given by the secretary, Miss Louise Dutera, and the treasurer, Mrs. George DeHoff. It was decided by the group to discontinue the class meetings during the months of July and August. The next meeting will be held Monday, September 17, at the church in the form of a covered dish social. Those appointed to serve as the September committee were Mrs. Hazel Hess, chairman, Miss Helen Myers, Miss Evelyn Hornberger and Mrs. Carroll Dodder. It is requested that the "rainy day bags" be turned in at the next meeting. The guess package was contributed by Mrs. Curvin Hollinger and was received by Mrs. Carroll Dodder. The meeting closed with the group repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. A social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the June committee composed of Mrs. Lloyd E. Crouse, chairman, Mrs. George I. Bemiller and Miss Lillian Demmitt. Theron W. Spangler is the teacher of the Hustlers' class.

12 GOP JOIN MOVE TO STOP BOOST IN TAXES

Harrisburg, June 21 (AP) — Twelve Republican senators, opposing a state income tax, declared themselves united Wednesday on a "no-new-taxes" program but reached no decision on a plan of action.

"We are united that no new taxes are necessary," Sen. Montgomery F. Crowe (R-Monroe) told a reporter after a hour and a half conference over the long tangled tax-budget situation.

"We had a nice friendly breakfast together but made no decisions," commented Sen. John M. Walker, Republican Senate leader, who split with Gov. John S. Fine on the income tax issue.

The conference was held as a series of swift developments gave anti-income tax Republican senators two hard choices — pass the levy or cut the state budget. The hard core of eleven senators, who rejected the income tax weeks ago, were joined by Sen. Samuel B. Wolfe (R-Union). Wolfe has proposed a five per cent across-the-board in state appropriations.

The fast moving developments late Thursday, which brought the tax-budget battle into sharp focus, were:

1. Gov. John S. Fine defended this budget as "realistic" and said he would give "considered action" to any broad based substitute tax for the income levy that will produce revenue to balance it.

2. Speaker Herbert P. Sore, of the House, said the GOP leaders in that branch wouldn't even think "about a new tax or tax program."

3. Sen. John M. Walker, Republican senator leader, proposed avoiding any new taxes by cutting appropriations, increasing estimates of expected revenues from present taxes and calling a special Assembly session next year if his figures "fall short of their mark."

Sore's statement seemed to slam the door against any substitute tax for the income levy since revenue raising legislation, by provision in state constitution, must originate in the House.

"S. O. S." has no literal meaning, but was chosen as a distress signal because of its ease in transmitting. Orchids grow from the smallest seed in the world.

Rider Hits Poor School Districts

Harrisburg, June 21 (AP) — Most destitute school districts in Pennsylvania would be disqualified from receiving extra state aid under a bill passed by the House.

The measure, sent to the Senate, would deny special state grants to would hit most destitute school districts failing to levy "an adequate tax rate."

This restriction, according to the Department of Public Instruction, would hit most destitute school districts in Pennsylvania.

The restriction was tacked on to the regular appropriation bill for aid to distressed school districts. The department had sought an appropriation of $1,000,000 for the next two years, but the amount was scaled down to $500,000.

Last year the state handed out some $1,500,000 to about 93 distressed school districts. Scores of other aid requests were tabled because of lack of funds. These grants were in addition to regular state school subsidies.
